Led by Mindy Jamison, this conference will bring understanding to generational poverty, while examining the culture and mindset of those impacted by generational poverty. The conference will also explore the most effective ways to minister to this community.

Mindy has more than 20 years experience working with churches, agencies and communities with a focus on generational poverty. Most recently, she was the Director of the Friendship Baptist Center in Des Moines, Iowa. In this conference, Mindy draws from her significant experience in poverty impacted communities, her formal education and also as a trained 'Bridges Out of Poverty' Trainer from Aha Process and Dr. Ruby Payne.

In addition to being a keynote speaker and conference leader, Mindy is available to consult with your church or organization with issues related to ministry and poverty culture.
